PERSONAL NARRATIVE

Tips for Choosing a Topic

- Who will be your audience: Your classmates? Friends? Family members?
- What will be your purpose in writing: To entertain? To share information?
- Write three hints of what you're going to write about, and see if they spark a partner's interest.
- Make a story board, with sketches and captions of the main events.
- Imagine your story is part of a TV show, starring one of your favorite characters. What would be the highlights?
